INSTRUCTOR BIOGRAPHIES:

Tracey Vaughan is a Drama and Speech instructor at Coeur d'Alene Charter Academy. She holds an MFA degree in Theatre from the University of Idaho along with 20 years of theatre directing experience and 12 years of teaching experience. Tracey has taught and directed productions in Idaho at North Idaho College, University of Idaho, and Lake City Playhouse, and in Florida at Ocala Civic Theatre and Playwright's Round Table. Professional credits include serving as the Artistic Executive Director of the Lake City Playhouse for three years and the formation of the theatre companies Reveler's Cabaret and Stage Directions. When not working in the theatre, she enjoys family time with her husband and four year-old son. Tracey is thrilled to be working with students at the Charter Academy and Coeur d'Alene High School.

Jared Helm is a Drama and Speech instructor at Coeur d'Alene High School. He holds a Bachelors of Science in Secondary Education: Theatre/Speech from the University of Idaho. Jared has taught and directed productions at Coeur d'Alene High School, Lewiston High School, Lewiston Civic Theatre, and Lake City Playhouse as well as writing and directing children's theatre for Lewis-Clark Stage Collage going on nine years this summer. When not in the theatre, he enjoys hanging out with his family and friends. Jared is excited to bring his love and passion for children's theatre to the Coeur d'Alene area. It has been one of Jared's favorite passions to direct children of all ages – this workshop is sure to be FANTASTIC!

Brook Bassett holds a BLS in Humanities, is owner of The Sum of Six Dance Studio and an employee of Triple L Talent Agency. She teaches the tap program at Northern Dance Academy and is a frequent choreographer/director for CYT and other local venues. As a tap dancer, Brook has taught in LA, DC, Seattle, Portland and Denver; she has been a participant in the Harold Cromer NYC Intensive and is a frequent attendee of the Vancouver International Tap Dance Society.

Zachariah Baker is an award-winning musical director hailing from Sandpoint, Idaho. He is thrilled, as always, to be able to work with such talented individuals in a thriving theater community. Recent projects include Urinetown and RENT for Lake City Playhouse, as well as CHS' smash-hit Les Miserables.
